

11-24-1911

Letter from Janet E. Davison, Wellesley,
Massachusetts, to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davison, Bath,
New York, 1911 November 24

Janet E. Davison

Wellesley College Archives

Follow this and additional works at: <https://repository.wellesley.edu/studentcordavison>

---

Recommended Citation

Davison, Janet E. and Wellesley College Archives, "Letter from Janet E. Davison, Wellesley, Massachusetts, to Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davison, Bath, New York, 1911 November 24" (1911). Janet E. Davison letters (6C/1915). 24.
<https://repository.wellesley.edu/studentcordavison/24>

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Wellesley Student Correspondence at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Janet E. Davison letters (6C/1915) by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Davison,
6 E. Washington Ave.,
Bath,
New York.

my hair & must. huddle by the radiator till it's dry I'll attempt to think of something I can write to you. I just sent a long letter to you on the last mail in which I expressed all my thoughts, original & otherwise. First, I think I'll draw a plan of the Stone house so you may see how our room & the other girls' rooms are situated so to speak.

Thurs. a.m.

I have a few minutes before Hygiene in which I'll try to finish this letter. I'm hungrier than the Dickens & am sorely tempted to eat my little paper bag lunch right now. Did I ever tell you that there's a lunch room here in C. H. where for the enormous sum of five cents, one may get a glass of milk or a cup of hot cocoa or soup with as many crackers as she wants. One of these "measures" together with three sandwiches, a banana or apple & , as Harriet M. says, a sample of cake form my lunch every Thurs. It ought to be enough but by the time I've had 2 hrs. of Botany and 1 hr. each of German & Gyn. I'm ready to run 'nough eat again. I haven't heard as yet from either my Hygiene or my Math. test. Next week I 'spect we'll have another Botany quiz.

Thurs. night (Wellesley Library).

Am studying here in the Sr. Economics room as Christine needed an escort. I have done the most surprising amt of studying in the last hour and a half — 20 pages of German and several math. theorems.

Have just answered Mrs. Baker's letter which came tonight, or was ~~at~~ the house when I got back from gym. She said she was going to write to you ~~too~~ so you probably know all about her invitation. I shall start for Springfield sometime Sat. Dec. 3rd and stay till Monday P.M. Won't it be fun though? I'm wild to see Walton! What clothes would you advise me to take, Mother? And Father, I'm getting short again. Sad to say. My board is paid up till next Thursday, but as I have an expensive hygiene book to buy, just had to <sup>pay</sup> ~~pay~~ <sup>which?</sup> out (at home again & ready for bed) $5.00 for Botany, & must buy my tickets to Wareham & Springfield, & then too Monday is Student Building Fair. Made out my cash acct yesterday & came out $.80 short & afterwards found an extra dollar so I'm $.20 ahead instead.

About clothes — I would like that red crepe de chine & beyond that if I can't ~~have enough~~ go to Elmeria or Rochester get a few things I'd rather go without, for I could perfectly well. I don't want our Xmas visit spoiled by mere clothes. See?

I'm going to enclose a little private note herein which is for Father alone. No questions to be asked.

I don't want any Xmas presents to speak of & you'd better wait till I get home to see if I do need anything. I'm really mighty well fixed.

Well it's after eleven & I'm going to bed. I hope this'll reach you before Sunday.

Love to all,
Janet.